

The New Comb Intercom with way, way more...IoT

Introducing the MK II, the next generation smart intercom that gives you all the control you are accustomed to, and more.

Ideal for cluster complexes, town-houses, business parks, residential estates and several other access managed environments.

Accredited installer recommended for installation

Integrate with Comb Portal

A single comprehensive web based facilities management platform, that integrates with our bespoke hardware and software offerings (*Combware) along with a myriad 3rd party products tailored to suit every access managed eco-system, Comb Portal is undeniably the class leading facility management system. From secure log-in to informative dashboards and the ability to customise to your own requirements. The intuitive navigation allows you to drill down on any queries related to specific hardware with exception based reporting. Pull reports, invite users and update information with ease.

Bright display, even in daylight. The keypad displays clearly, even in dark conditions and offers audible feedback

Set the timing on incoming and outgoing talk time to avoid misuse.

Any movement of the unit will result in an alert to the administrator.

Temporary access pins with the integrated Tap-Tap keypad

Permanent pin-code for an individual user to provide access.

Integrate with up to 5 external devices that require a physical connection.

Back-up battery (8Hrs stand-by)

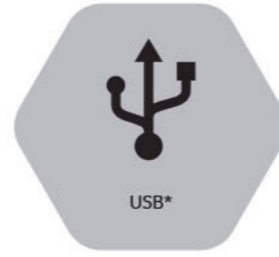

Available Sim card slot for different mobile providers.

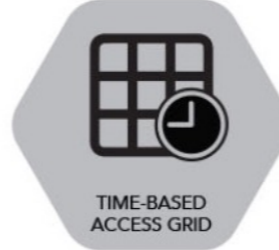

Gate opening functionality from your mobile with caller-line-identity active.

Predefined numbers for reaching emergency services.

Plug in to 3rd party hardware

Allow or deny Access by means of our bespoke Timegrid feature on Comb Portal

Call the intercom to reach security personnel.

The Comb Environment

